

ISO 14067 Product Carbon Footprint

Elevate your product through SIRIM QAS Product Carbon Footprint Scheme. Find out more on how to establish your Product Category Rules.

The product's carbon footprint throughout its life cycle can be quantified. SIRIM QAS verifies your product's greenhouse gasses emissions throughout its life cycle based on the ISO 14067 standard. With the Product Carbon Footprint Certification, you can assure stakeholders that your CO₂ emissions data and declaration are complete, accurate and in compliance with the international standard requirements

How does it help your business:

Assure stakeholders of your commitment to meet GHG reduction targets

Allow consumer to make informed purchasing decisions

Facilitate engagement with investors and supply chain partners to ensure greener supply chains

Ease of access to local and international market

Demonstrate your commitment to support the low carbon growth agenda with SIRIM QAS today.
